Key-Boards of Hindi Computers

5661. SHRI RAJVEER SINGH:
DR. LAL BAHADUR RAWAL:

Will the PRIME MINISTER be pleased tate:

(a) whether the key-boards of the Hindi computers available in the market are of different types;

(b) if so, the measures taken to remove the hurdles in doing the work in Hindi Devnagri Script;

(c) whether the Government have made any efforts to make available only one type of key-board of Devnagri Script; and

(d) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SHRIMATI MARGARET ALVA): (a)Though there are different computer keyboards available in the market for usage in Hindi, majority of them follow a standard layout.

(b) and (c). Different types of keyboard layouts emerged in the past as there was no standard for such keybvoards. The Department of Electronics, through the Bureau of Indian Standards has brought out a standard for the Indain Script code for Information Interchange (ISCII) in December, 1991. This also contains standard keyboard lay out for Indain script based computers. It is now expected that the keybaord manufactures will folow the layout standardised by the Government.

(d) Does not arise.
